

The Ray and Nancy Loeschner Art Competition

(For Two-Dimensional Art)

FREDERIK MEIJER
Gardens & Sculpture Park

Frederik Meijer Gardens & Sculpture Park is pleased to announce a call for entries for the 2018 Ray and Nancy Loeschner Art Competition. The competition is open to all artists who are of college age and older working in a two-dimensional format.

Artists who have been inspired by Meijer Gardens are encouraged to submit original works.

Artists are also welcome to work on-site for inspiration. The winning entries will become part of Meijer Gardens' permanent collection. They will be displayed and may be reproduced (e.g. posters, note cards), with full credit to the artists, to promote the beauty and inspiration the organization provides.

There is a two-step selection process: digital images of the artwork and resumé of the artist are to be submitted for the preliminary application, and finalists will be asked to deliver the original artwork for selection of this year's purchase award recipient. The juror panel will include professional staff and trustees of Meijer Gardens.

PROJECT INTENT

This project is a competition for two-dimensional art (e.g. a drawing, print, pastel, or painting) and photography inspired by the gardens, grounds and collections of Frederik Meijer Gardens & Sculpture Park. The objective is to collect high quality work that would celebrate the beauty and inspiration the institution provides.

Two $5,000 purchase awards will be paid for the winning entries in two-dimensional and photography categories.

Online submissions will now be accepted!
