OUR RULES
Always be respectful. For the safety and enjoyment of all visitors and to protect the beauty of Meijer Gardens, please respect our rules during your visit:

• Stay on pathways and mowed lawn areas.
• Do not touch sculptures. Light touching is allowed for these two sculptures only: The American Horse and Fred and Lena Meijer.
• Do not climb any sculptures, trees, walls, fountains, rocks or waterfalls.
• Do not wade or swim in ponds or streams.
• Supervise children at all times.
• Picnicking is allowed only in designated pavilion areas.
• Pets are not allowed. Guide/service dogs are welcome.
• No bicycling, rollerblading, jogging, skiing, etc.
• Smoking, vaping, e-cigarettes or similar devices are not permitted—we are a smoke-free environment.
• Due to Michigan state law, no alcohol may be brought onto the grounds or facilities, and will be confiscated. Violators may be asked to leave the premises.
• Food and drinks are not allowed in the sculpture galleries, gift shop or indoor gardens.
• Photographs for personal use may be taken in all public areas, unless noted otherwise. (Visit MeijerGardens.org/photography for our full photo policy.)
